It took a while but The Maison 140 Hotel in Beverly Hills has finally finished up the room renovations that it began back in 2009.

The facelift was overseen by Viceroy Hotels in-house designer, Kelly Wearstler who redesigned all 43 rooms in a Parisian style. Gone is the old yellow and grey decor and now in its place is a vibrant orange and red color scheme with new beds, headboards, curtains, chairs and desks.

To celebrate the hotel rooms' new look, the hotel is offering a Renew Package which gives guests welcome champagne, a continental breakfast, complimentary parking and internet for just $185 a night. (The deal is good through June 30th.)

This is a great deal if you want an affordable boutique hotel close to the center of Beverly Hills but just keep in mind, the hotel doesn't have much of a lobby or any other public spaces for that matter. However, you can pop over to the hotel's sister properties--the Avalon and the L'Ermitage to use the pool or have dinner.
